

Privacy Principle of Prince Bank Plc.

This privacy principle sets out how Prince Bank Plc. uses and protects your personal information that you provide to us. We will collect your personal information and use security measures such as computer or device safeguards and secured files and buildings to protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use. Your personal information will be used for purposes for which it is provided only, which include the usage of your personal information to contact you and to verify your identity. Additionally, your personal information may also be used to inform you about your accounts opened with us and to offer you products and/or services which might be of interest to you. In any case, if you choose not to receive the products and/or services from us, we will conform to your request. You will have the right to access, correct, or change your personal information any times. You can also deny providing us your personal information although this denial may somewhat affect the products or services we may offer you. It is noteworthy that none of your personal information will be sold to a third party. If you have any question or concern about this privacy principle, please feel free to contact us at info@princebank.com.kh or on 1800 20 8888.
